Revelation 1:7.

Jesus loves us, and says that we must keep the law. This is the covenant between God and His people. The law is found in several Scriptures, e.g. in Exodus 20:1-17. The fourth commandment says that we shall rest on the Sabbath, i.e. on Saturday. By keeping the Sabbath holy, we manifest keeping all of the law. We will want to go with Jesus into Heaven.

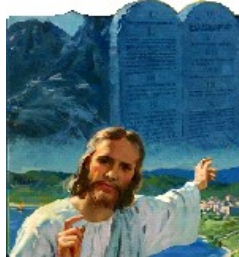

Jesus has left us, but promised He will come back: "Ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also." John 14:1-4.

This is the description of the second coming of Christ in First Thessalonians 4:15-17: "For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord."
